

ADMISSIONS 2012
Diversity Initiatives@FORE School of Management, New Delhi

Diversity is the hallmark of Indian society and the corporate world has been using it to their advantage. At FORE we encourage diversity greatly. Our present student's profile is highly diverse in terms of gender, academic background, and work experience from varied industry. We are working to make our student force increasingly more diverse in terms of region and ethnic background. Our admission policy framework is geared to encourage students from the North-Eastern and the Southern India to seek admission to our various programmes.
