FORE International Doctoral Colloquium (FIDC) 2023

December 14, 2023

About FORE School of Management (FSM), New Delhi

FORE School of Management, New Delhi is functioning under the aegis of the Foundation for Organisational Research and Education (FORE). FORE is committed to advancing Management Education, Research, Training, and Consultancy. Incorporated in 1981 as a non-profit institution, FORE has been working with industry and academia to create a learning ecosystem for innovative and sustainable business practices, and to build leaders in today's global business environment. At FSM, students are expected to have an enriching and life-turning experience, enabling them to reach new heights in their professional lives. Located in South Delhi, FSM provides contextual learning and helps develop students as thinking professionals who can meet tomorrow's corporate leaders' future challenges. The programs develop multiple skills, including managerial decision-making, problem-solving, analytical reasoning, communication, creativity, and innovation.

About the Colloquium

FSM takes pleasure in inviting research scholars to register, participate, and contribute to the extant knowledge of management by submitting and presenting the research work at the FORE International Doctoral Colloquium (FIDC) 2023. FIDC is organised to provide aspiring researchers with a platform for presenting their research proposals and receiving valuable feedback. This colloquium aims to create an environment conducive to creative ideas being exchanged between peers, with the ultimate goal of developing these ideas into publications in the future.
