

A Critique on Chinese Management Style and Business Ethics
Lessons for Hindustani Business

Dr. Ambrish Gupta
Sr. Professor
FORE School of Management
New Delhi 110 016
E-mail: ambrish@fsm.ac.in

Abstract

This paper seeks to carry out a critical analysis of Chinese Management Style and Business Ethics as learnt through the seminar on “Some Thoughts about Chinese Management Styles and Chinese Business Ethics”, delivered by Professor Zhenzhong Ma in Beijing, China, on November 01, 2011. The paper further seeks to suggest the lessons for Hindustani businessmen while dealing with their Chinese counterparts.

Key Words: Confucianism, Chinese Management Style, Chinese Business Ethics, Gender Effects.

Acknowledgement:

My sincere thanks and gratitude to President FORE, Shri R. C. Sharma, for providing an opportunity to FORE faculty to visit China to understand its people, culture, management style and business practices.