Building Strategic and Sustainable HR Function

Introduction

HR function has evolved from its traditional role to a strategic function and is expected to add to the sustainability of the organization. Although many organizations have shown their interest and commitments towards a sustainable strategy, its implementation, measurement and integration with HR practices, has often a challenge. In this context human resource practitioners are expected to build upon the existing strategic approach to develop sustainable human resources within the organization. Now, the HR function needs to play a key role in addressing the critical success factors for implementing sustainable practices. This programme would help the participants in developing a perspective on sustainable strategic human resource management and implementing it.
