

GUILTY AS CHARGED

Team Personality Enhancement Cell, FORE School of Management, New Delhi, organized the annual 'Guilty as Charged' event on 2nd December 2023 under the aegis of Genesis 2023. The legal mock trial competition drew top B-school teams from across India into a thrilling battle of wits and courtroom skills. The event promised a fierce examination of controversial business figures, companies, and lawsuits.

The competition unfolded in three progressively challenging stages. Round 1, an online quiz, served as a preliminary assessment, testing participants' general legal knowledge and specific understanding of cases involving prominent business figures and companies. Only teams demonstrating exceptional acumen progressed to the subsequent Vindicator's Arena. This second round mimicked a high-stakes courtroom debate, where teams defended the actions of controversial figures or companies, demanding adept research, persuasive argumentation, and logical reasoning. The ten most proficient teams then advanced to the final stage: a meticulously structured Mock Trial Simulation. In this culminating phase, participants grappled with a real-life corporate lawsuit, crafting and delivering opening statements, presenting evidence, and formulating compelling closing arguments.

INDUSTRY CONNECT

Team Personality Enhancement Cell, FORE School of Management, New Delhi, organized a dynamic Industry Connect session on 23rd January 2024 featuring Mr. Prateek Dhingra, Cofounder and CEO India of Quint.org.

This captivating event, titled "Industry Insights & Personality Assessment Session" engaged 60+ students in a profound exploration of the dynamic IT landscape. Mr. Dhingra's expertise extended beyond the realm of technical knowledge. He provided a comprehensive analysis of the key attributes required for navigating this dynamic field. His candid observations on emerging trends, potential challenges, and individual aptitudes resonated strongly with the audience. This session exceeded the expectations of a typical industry talk, offering a valuable learning experience focused on personal development.

Drawing from his personal entrepreneurial journey, Mr. Dhingra stressed the cornerstone values of adaptability, continuous learning, and critical thinking. He championed the importance of soft skills, urging students to cultivate self-awareness, emotional intelligence, and the power of persuasive communication. Team PEC further personalized the experience by incorporating a pre-session personality assessment. During the session, Mr. Dhingra expertly interpreted the results, providing tailored feedback and fostering a space for self-reflection. This unique exercise empowered students to unlock their strengths and address their weaknesses, equipping them with valuable tools for both personal and professional growth.

The session moved beyond the traditional format of a lecture, fostering a productive dialogue through interactive discussions and engaging Q&A sessions. This active exchange fueled an atmosphere of intellectual curiosity, allowing students to not only acquire vital industry knowledge but also gain valuable insights for navigating the IT landscape with confidence and resilience.

In acknowledgment of this key learning, the members of the Team Personality Enhancement Cell expressed their gratitude and honoured Mr. Dhingra with a token of appreciation for dedicating his time and grateful to our college faculty Prof. Vandana Gupta for imparting their invaluable expertise and bespoke guidance.

MARK THE TALK

Team Personality Enhancement Cell, FORE School of Management, New Delhi, organized its annual 'Mark The Talk' session on 30th October 2023. Topic of the session was 'Managing our first impression during interviews' and to guide the students we proudly hosted our guest speaker, Ms. Sonu Singh, a Personality Development & Career Branding Consultant who is the co-founder of Soulful Impressions, specialised in Image Management and Soft Skills.

Seminar saw a participation from 60+ students who all truly appreciated the knowledgeable insights gained from the seminar. The session aimed to help participants gain a deep understanding of the crucial skills and attitudes necessary for leaving a great first impression. Its purpose was to equip them with the knowledge and preparation required as they embark on their corporate journey.

Following the welcoming remarks, Ms. Singh went beyond the usual format of one-sided seminar presentations. She actively engaged the audience by conducting an interactive and value-driven session from start to finish. She kicked off the session with an activity designed to illustrate the importance of attitude, skills, and knowledge to the seminar attendees.

She provided insights into several important aspects that could make a student stand out, which included essential interview techniques and effective communication. Furthermore, she highlighted the central importance of one's attitude in the corporate environment.

Ms. Singh then talked about Resume building and the key areas one must focus on while appearing for an interview. She also emphasized upon self-confidence and self-realisation as two important ingredients of a good impression.

Ms. Singh also discussed the importance of posture and body language along with some key interview questions and their appropriate responses.

In acknowledgment of this key learning, the members of the Team Personality Enhancement Cell expressed their gratitude and honored Ms. Singh with a token of appreciation for dedicating her time and imparting her invaluable expertise.
